- For renewal of a Direct Wine Shipper Permit in Permit Year 2010, submission of a copy of the General Excise License is not required but will expedite the processing of your renewed Permit. No renewal reminder notices will be sent, and current permit holders will not receive the same permit number that was assigned in 2009.
- At the present time, permit holders are not required to report shipments at designated intervals before the January 31 deadline, and are not required to report in any particular format. At a minimum, however, permit holders must provide name, address, and total amount of wine shipped (with number of bottles and bottle size) to demonstrate compliance with annual volume limits (no more than six nine-liter cases per household).
- Hawaii Class 1 (manufacturer) licensees who wish to ship to residents of the County of Honolulu must still apply for a Direct Wine Shipper Permit but do not need to submit a separate annual permit fee.
- The annual permit fee of $120.00 is prorated ($10.00 per month) - for example, permits submitted in February 2010 submit a permit fee of $110.00; permits submitted in March 2010 submit a permit fee of $100.00; etc.
- General excise and gallonage taxes are not collected by the Liquor Commission. Please contact the State of Hawaii Department of Taxation at www.hawaii.gov/tax/ or (808) 587-4242 or 1-800-222-3229.
